

Two-day conference

Cultures and Practices of Travel 1600-1800

24 March 2.30pm-7pm, 25 March 9.30am-5.30pm

'Tour de Calais', c. 1785 © Trustees of the British Museum

A two-day conference exploring the diverse methods and theoretical approaches with which scholars are currently transforming the study of seventeenth and eighteenth-century travel.

Confirmed speakers: Elaine Chalus (keynote), Richard Ansell, Chloe Chard, Michèle Cohen, John Gallagher, Sarah Goldsmith, Katrina O'Loughlin, Emma Pouncefort, Gerrit Verhoeven and Mark Williams.

Funded by the British Academy

Registration free at www.shop.le.ac.uk

£5 optional lunch on the Saturday

VENUE

1 Salisbury Rd, Leicester, LE1 7QR

This conference is open to graduates, students, staff and members of the public